

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Galatians.

The marks on my body are those of Jesus.

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

This is the word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia. I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Your peace will go and rest on that man.

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, ‘The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, ‘Peace to this house!’ And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, ‘The kingdom of God is very near to you’. But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, . ‘We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near.’ I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.

The seventy-two came back rejoicing. ‘Lord,’ they said ‘even the devils submit to us when we use your name.’ He said to them, ‘I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Towards her I send flowing peace, like a river.

Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled, from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord: Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream in spate the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap. Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you. And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your bones flourish like the grass. To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

This is the word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R: Cry out with joy to God all the earth.

1. Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: ‘How tremendous your deeds!’

2. ‘Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!’
Come and see the works of God,
tremendous his deeds among men.

3. He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might.

4. Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer
nor withhold his love from me. R.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant's Introduction: Let us now raise our minds and hearts in prayer to the God whose plan for his people is consolation and rejoicing

Intercessions:

- 1 For missionaries everywhere, and for the missionary task of the Church. In apparent success and in apparent failure, may missionaries entrust all they do and are to God.
Lord, hear us.....
2. For those who promote a pessimistic and closed understanding of the human person, that the Lord may enlighten them and that they may become teachers of hope.
Lord, hear us.....
3. For people who suffer from a lack of hope, for those struggling with depression, and for those whose hold on life is fragile. By God's grace, may they find the strength they need.
Lord, hear us.....
4. For Bishop Fintan Gavin who was consecrated Bishop of the diocese of Cork and Ross last Sunday. May the Lord bless and guide him, now and always.
Lord, hear us.....

Celebrant: Grant Lord, that as you have received our prayers, we may offer you our very lives. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Congratulations and Welcome Bishop Fintan
